

Treadstone Sponsorship Program

Treadstone has developed a contingency program that will allow eligible participants to receive payouts based on the exposure your car receives. Throughout the year of an agreement Treadstone will payout 1 check or multiple checks based on the publicity your car provides for our company. The agreement will depend on the parts purchased and the maximum amount payable upon purchase of parts. Different turbo kits and or parts will have different maximum payouts. Also the type and placement of sticker's will affect payout. Qualifications for payouts from greatest to least payout
